The New Covenant

Understand that Jesus made a New Covenant with us.
Think about our part in this Covenant.

The Last Supper → New Covenant

In the Old Testament, when God made a covenant with the Jews (Israelites), they agreed to live the Ten Commandments. At the Last Supper, Jesus made a New Covenant with us.

St. Paul tells us what happened.

“The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said,

‘This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.’ In the same way, after supper, he took the cup saying, ‘This cup is the New Covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me’.

For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes” (1 Cor 11:23-26).

The New Covenant

At the Last Supper, Jesus made a New Covenant with his disciples and with us. He fulfilled this New Covenant by freely handing over his life in love to the Father, by accepting death on a cross. He said to his disciples and to us: "This is my body which is handed over for you. Do this in remembrance of me." What is Jesus asking us to do about our part in the New Covenant? Jesus is asking us to hand over our lives to him by living out this New Commandment:

The New Commandment

"I give you a New Commandment:
love one another;
just as I have loved you,
you must also love one another"
(Jn 13:34).

Pause to discuss

- At the Last Supper, what did Jesus do for us?
- How do we know?
- What is he asking us to do?
- Give examples of how we can enter into this New Covenant with him.
- How can we live out this New Covenant in daily life?

Task 1 ...Using the painting from the sheet or the simplified one below draw and paint 'The Last Supper'. 11

12 Disciples Song - The Bigsby Show - YouTube Use this song to learn the names of the 12 disciples. Make cards to help you remember their names and use different colours to help you spell them. Then make it into a game by cutting each name into two and spread them on the table face down. Now turn up two cards at a time and try to match them. If you have a pair keep them if not put them back face down

What is consent?

Consent is another word for permission.

We need to ask for permission for some things and give permission for others, when we're online as well as offline.

Let's look at some examples...

When do we need consent with friends?

It's important to check how people feel about an action before you do it.

Can you think of any other online examples like this?

Besties

Noah Did you see JoJoGames uploaded a new video??

Avani No! Is it any good?

Noah About to watch it.

Why do organisations sometimes ask you for consent?

Allow Pokémon GO to access this device's location?

Sometimes organisations will ask permission before they do something that might affect you or your account – for example, collecting your personal information.

Can you think of any other online examples like this?

How did you get on with the powerpoint questions?

Do you understand the words? Permission Consent Personal information Right choice It's OK to say No!

Making positive choices

Asking for and giving permission is an opportunity to make a choice about your life online.

You have the power to make a positive choice but that choice could take many forms.

Think about the questions on the next few slides, what do you think is the right choice for each one?
